

UNDERWORLD NEWS

INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

Underworld celeb news	2
The Box Tunnel 20	2
The Other Side's	2
Underworld's sales	3
Underworld Schools	4
Underworld Politics	5
Underworld Sports	6

Special points of Interest:

- William Shakespeare joins the people living in Exit 43
- Harald Bloodaxe decides to suspend ascents
- The cell membrane gets worse as Edric struggles
- Lady Fortescue buys another green dress

11 YEAR OLD MORTAL FALLS DOWN EXIT 43

At 2:45pm, a 11 year old mortal named Finn Oliver broke through Exit 43 with his mother's red Ford Fiesta.

Finn Oliver was joyriding on the moors on The Other Side around Exit 43 during the latest ascents made by the citizens of Exit 43. His car swerved and then fell through the exit tunnel at unbelievable speed. He was found by Mr. Henry Glenridding, the watchman at Exit 43, who then immediately told Harald Bloodaxe, the head of exit. The boy was then rushed to the Red Temple where even the Igneous Fountain was falling at reviving the mortal. He slipped in and out of consciousness as Harald and Morgan Bloodaxe spoke to him about the Firepearl Prophecy. It is believed that Harald Bloodaxe has asked Finn Oliver to go down to the Gateway and release the Firepearl. This crash has weakened the membrane further and Harald Bloodaxe is now likely to stop the ascents. Finn Oliver is yet to regain con-

The car before it fell down Exit 43 and got literally wrecked sciousness so Underworld News took the chance to interview Mr. Glenridding. 'Jessie Sherratt had just gone up, she was the twentieth person to be allowed up the ladder. I can't remember the all of the ascents but I remember Charlie Wilberforce went up Ladder Two. As soon as Jessie disappeared, I was about to leave the antechamber when 'crash'. The Ford Fiesta was just there...dumped in the middle of the exit tunnel in one mangled heap. It was terrifying. Then Finn fell. I only just managed to get out of the way.' Underworld News waits in anticipation to interview Finn Oliver.

JESSIE SHERRATT DISAPPEARS

Jessie Sherratt, a citizen of Exit 43, disappeared after her ascent at 2:44pm. She was the last of twenty to be picked by Mr. Henry Glenridding. In an interview today he said: 'Jessie was very lucky to go up considering Harald Bloodaxe is considering to suspend all ascents. She wanted to go and see how much inbetween time her family had left.' Underworld News also got an interview with Morgan Bloodaxe, son of the head of exit Harald Bloodaxe, 'I was one of the last people to see Jessie before she went. She beat me to the last place on the ladders. I remember she was quite nervous and it was her first time to go up.' If anyone see a spirit-girl in a blue crinoline they are to immediately report it to Harald Bloodaxe or Henry Glenridding at Exit 43.